The army has a memo builder website and it's pretty good

AR 25-50 wasn't updated until 2020 to switch from two spaces after a period to one.

Signature Block : r/army - Reddit

Hey guys, I have a desk jockey question for all of you regarding signature blocks. IMO, since we do not have a regulation governing email, we must default to AR 25-50. My signature block follows this regulation. I.E. The POC for this post is the undersigned at 555 555-5555. . . . . J C. KRUZ SSG, USA Secure Voice Shift Supervisor. Aside from the dots, because I could not figure out how to do ...

The AR 25-50 chatbot can fix your writing so that it is within Army guidelines. These are available with a ChatGPT Plus subscription, just hit the "explore" button and search for them or use the links below. Here's what I've made so far: AR 600-20 Army Command Policy Expert: Get insights into the command policies that shape the Army's framework.

Unit Knowledge: Policy Letters : r/army - Reddit

Policy Letters are used to describe specific conditions and procedures for common processes within an organization. Usually Policy Letter #1 is almost always the Open Door policy, which is a regulatory requirement by AR 600-100 "Army Command", this means at any time, you can speak to your CDR about any issues you are having. The ideal method is to give your chain of command the opportunity ...

AR 25-50 Templates, a blessing from our Lord and Savior Jerry : r/army

For those of you who struggle with adding a digital signature block to your correspondence, there is a section in the new 25-50 that step by steps you through it.

I want to [REDACTED] everyone who wrote AR 25-50 : r/army - Reddit

I'm so tired of AR 25-50 to measure spacing and indentation and alignment in Microsoft Word. I'll have one of those lemonades from Panera that give people heart attacks.
