Screen Jumps/Slides Each Time Mouse is Clicked to See the Next Slide

I think the site has bugs. Has it been working well for a long time, then all of a sudden it's doing that? And you say no other sites are doing this? If so, it's very likely to be their site. I would wait a few days and see if the problem gets fixed by itself (as whoever manages the MSN news site). My problem is that for some of the slides, it shows a white box: (out of all the current slides ...
