Are people having hard time finding jobs in the US and there is a ...

Sure, but longer-term will be too long for people already in their 30s who want the "picket fence and two cats in the yard" experience. If all they can afford is an apartment some of them will just say "screw it" to the idea of having a family. That could result in an overall population decline, which eventually creates a housing surplus. That scenario would take decades to unfold, however.
