It is best known to western audiences for the annual No-Laughing Batsu Games and the original version of Silent Library. Submissions aren't limited to just Downtown no Gaki no Tsukai ya Arahende!!, you can post anything related to the members of Downtown, Cocorico and Tsukitei Hōsei.

Batsu Appreciation Post : r/OnePieceTCG - Reddit

I wanted to take a moment and make an appreciate post for Batsu (maebatsu). He's truly the GOAT for the OPTCG community (and a good person). In case you are unaware, he (I'm 99% sure) single-handedly created the OPTCG Simulator. He does all the updates to the versions, so that we can play/practice online.

What is the best Batsu games for a new comer that doesn't ... - Reddit

Hello, As the title states. I want to show someone the Batsu games. But the more recent ones seem to really rely on humor of knowing a certain Japanese celebrity and the surprise of them being there. Being American every single one of these references goes over my head. What would be the newest Batsu games that is more focused on the physical humor and not so much the cameo aspect of it to be ...

In your opinion, which batsu is the best and why? - Reddit

It's more about the individual moments in each batsu for me rather than just 'which is the best,' but I do agree that EDF has the most of these moments. Hamada's and Tanaka's faces when his son calls for the Thai Kick are absolutely amazing.
