What does "based" mean? : r/NoStupidQuestions - Reddit

The term "based" was actually derived from the term "basehead" which was used during the 1980s crack epidemic. It was used to refer to individuals who were addicted to freebasing cocaine, the base form of the drug which make it smokable. In West Coast slang, based referred to someone who was a crackhead or acting like one.

Do you guys do slang etymology? Where does 'based' come from?

Over time, calling someone based was a way of saying that they were a crack addict, or acting like one, especially in West Coast street slang. In the way slang things go, people acting eccentric or abnormal were labelled based. At least that's what seems to have happened with quirky West Coast rapper Brandon "Lil B" McCartney.

It's not officially based on any books. However, it's worth noting that someone else realized there is a series of children's books called The Faraway Tree by Enid Blyton which features a magical tree that when climbed, takes you to different lands. One of the lands featured is a place that is constantly changing locations and once you enter, you cannot leave until it arrives back at the ...

Why do people say "based"? : r/NoStupidQuestions - Reddit

People used to call him based because he would act hyper like a basehead (a crack addict) might. Crack is the free-base version of cocaine, which is why addicts are sometimes called baseheads. Instead of being insulted by the word, he flipped it around and started saying that being based is being true to oneself.
