

capitalism and the death drive

AI generated article from Bing

Capitalism - Research and data from Pew Research Center

Americans see capitalism as giving people more opportunity and more freedom than socialism, while they see socialism as more likely to meet people's basic needs, though these perceptions differ significantly by party. Many Democrats say socialism meets people's basic needs; Republicans say it restricts individual freedoms.

FOR RELEASE September 19, 2022 - Pew Research Center

Source: Survey of U.S. adults conducted Aug. 1-14, 2022. PEW RESEARCH CENTER Americans see capitalism as giving people more opportunity and more freedom than socialism, while they see socialism as more likely to meet people's basic needs, though these perceptions differ significantly by party.

How Republicans, Democrats view socialism and capitalism | Pew Research ...

Republicans express intensely negative views of "socialism" and very positive views of "capitalism." Majorities of Democrats view both terms positively.

Americans' Views of 'Socialism' and 'Capitalism' In Their Own Words ...

A similar share (20%) says that capitalism has an exploitative and corrupt nature, often hurting either people or the environment. A smaller share of Americans who have negative views of capitalism (8%) mention that corporations and wealthy people undermine the democratic process by having too much power in political matters.

Modest Declines in Positive Views of 'Socialism' and 'Capitalism' in U ...

Americans see capitalism as giving people more opportunity and more freedom than socialism, while they see socialism as more likely to meet people's basic needs, though these perceptions differ significantly by party. Many Democrats say socialism meets people's basic needs; Republicans say it restricts individual freedoms.

Black Americans view capitalism more negatively than positively but ...

Four-in-ten Black adults held a very or somewhat positive view of capitalism in 2022, down from 57% in 2019. Views of capitalism also grew more negative among other racial and ethnic groups during this period, but the movement was particularly pronounced among Black Americans.

China's government may be communist, but its people embrace capitalism ...

While China's government may be officially communist, the Chinese people express widespread support for capitalism. Roughly three-quarters of the Chinese (76%) agree that most people are better off in a free market economy. And since 2002, the Chinese have consistently been one of the strongest ...

Little Change in Public's Response to 'Capitalism,' 'Socialism'

The recent Occupy Wall Street protests have focused public attention on what organizers see as the excesses of America's free market system, but perceptions of capitalism – and even of socialism – have changed little since early 2010 despite the recent tumult. The American public's take on ...

FOR RELEASE October 7, 2019 - Pew Research Center

The survey found that Republicans, in particular, viewed socialism and capitalism in zero-sum terms. A large majority of Republicans and Republican-leaning independents (68%) had both a positive impression of capitalism and a negative view of socialism. However, Democrats and Democratic leaners were more likely to view both terms positively; a plurality (38%) had a positive impression of both ...

"Socialism" Not So Negative, "Capitalism" Not So Positive

Overview "Socialism" is a negative for most Americans, but certainly not all Americans. "Capitalism" is regarded positively by a majority of the public,