DRIVER ERROR " pcdsrvc_64.pkms " and " iqvw64e.sys

Lately I've been experiencing multiple errors which it say " A driver cannot load on this device " and these drivers are pcdsrvc_64.pkms and iqvw64e.sys. i tried searching for solutions online but seems like nothing working. Also, i checked @MrCharlie solution for someone by downloading OTL which...

Malware bytes Anti-Exploit for Android?

Hey there should be a version of Anti-Exploit for Android... Since, you know, a lot of people also have older versions of Android and they don't have the fixed up vulnerabilities in newer android versions... Also, for Android web browsers Anti-Exploit support (just like on a PC) for browsers like...

[RESOLVED] Malwarebytes Free Anti Malware

Win 7. Hello. On my Win 7 home computer, Malwarebytes Free Anti Malware is installed and, further, I wanted to install it on another Win 7 computer. I found Malwarebytes Free Antivirus 2025 but that is not what I am looking for because I only want the Anti-Malware feature. Note: I am 'not' lookin...

Firewall support? - Malwarebytes for Android - Malwarebytes Forums

Could you guys add Firewall support for rooted devices for Malware bytes? Because right now I use Avast, because they have an antivirus and built-in firewall for rooted devices, but Malwarebytes is so much better, and more effective. Because this would be awesome! Thanks ngrok getting flagged as malware - File Detections - Malwarebytes Forums

I haven't been able to get the logs, because I'm not a direct subscriber to Malwarebytes. It's maintained by my local tech support at Billings Tech Guys. Here's the only info I've seen.

Popup constantly appearing for "Total AV"

I had hoped the Malwarebytes could stop the popup on my computer, but so far, the popup continues. I've never had Total AV. I've contacted them via their customer support several times, but they tell me that they can't do anything because I don't have an account. (Uhm.... that's why I want
