

for hearing people only pdf

AI generated article from Bing

Deafness and hearing loss - World Health Organization (WHO)

Major causes of hearing loss include congenital or early onset childhood hearing loss, chronic middle ear infections, noise-induced hearing loss, age-related hearing loss, and ototoxic drugs that damage the inner ear. The impacts of hearing loss are broad and can be profound.

Deafness and hearing loss: Safe listening

The hearing loss caused by exposure to loud sounds is called noise-induced hearing loss (NIHL). Noise-induced hearing loss can be immediate (such as when exposed to a sudden burst of loud sound); however, more often the loss is gradual, permanent, and frequently goes unnoticed or ignored until the effects become more obvious.

World report on hearing - World Health Organization (WHO)

The World report on Hearing aims to provide evidence-based guidance to drive actions for integration of quality EHC services into national health plans of Member States, as part of their work towards universal health coverage.

World Hearing Day timeline - World Health Organization (WHO)

World Hearing Day through the years: Journey of advocacy World Hearing Day is a pivotal advocacy event in raising awareness about hearing loss and promoting ear and hearing care worldwide. Each year, on March 3rd, the global community comes together to advocate for policies that support ear and hearing care. Join us as we explore the achievements of World Hearing Day over the years.

Deafness and hearing loss - World Health Organization (WHO)

Deafness and hearing loss fact sheet from WHO: providing key facts and information on causes, impact, prevention, identification, management and WHO response.

World Hearing Day 2026 - World Health Organization (WHO)

World Hearing Day 2026 (3 March) From communities to classrooms: hearing care for all children Act now so no child is left behind due to ear or hearing problems Why focus on children's hearing? Globally, school-age children with hearing loss often remain undiagnosed and without access to needed services (World report on hearing, 2021).

World Hearing Day 2025 - World Health Organization (WHO)

World Hearing Day 2025 (3 March) Changing mindsets: Empower yourself to make ear and hearing care a reality for all! You can take steps today to ensure good hearing health throughout life. This year's theme builds upon the 2024 focus on changing mindsets towards ear and hearing care.

World Hearing Day Planning Guide 2025

This guide provides a basic and practical framework for any person or organization interested in observing World Hearing Day to raise awareness and promote ear and hearing care (EHC) at national and community levels across the world. The guide is a resource for those working in the field of ear and hearing care. It has been prepared to provide you with the World Hearing Day branding and key ...

Call for proposals: Support for World Hearing Day small grants 2026- CLOSED

For this purpose, WHO is working with regional offices to assess the country capacity for ear and hearing care in Member States and. Each year, WHO organizes the World Hearing Day as a means of raising awareness on ear and hearing care and disseminating its materials and messages. To such actions WHO runs a small grants competition program.

Deafness and hearing loss: Tinnitus - World Health Organization (WHO)

Hearing aids can be effective for some people with tinnitus and hearing loss (16). They amplify external sounds, making tinnitus less noticeable and improving overall hearing. In persons with tinnitus and severe hearing loss or deafness, cochlear implants can be highly effective in terms of tinnitus suppression.