

gavotte in g minor

AI generated article from Bing lyrics - What's the meaning of "gavotte" in Carly Simon's song "You're ...

The "gavotte" is a French dance. You walked into the party / Like you were walking on a yacht / Your hat strategically dipped below one eye / Your scarf, it was apricot / You had one eye on the mirror / And watched yourself gavotte / He was so vain, he watched himself in the mirror while he was dancing. The singer probably doesn't mean that he actually performed an 18th-century French dance ...

Provide information "on", "of" or "about" something?

Which is grammatical: "it provides information on something", or, "it provides information of something", or, "it provides information about something"? Or if all are grammatical, which one is used Throughout and through. How to use them?

"Through" means from one side to the other. So a tunnel goes through a mountain because it goes in one side and out the other. "Throughout" means in every part or space possible. So we would say things were scattered throughout a forest to mean they were in all directions and in many places. the bullet went through his body. the cancer had spread throughout his body. You're quite right that a ...

Which of these: "I only have few left" or "I only have a few left"

Jac's version, "I only have a little left", is correct. "only" makes "a little" sound negative (meaning that the person is short of cosmetics). "a few" (not few) would also be possible, but this would suggest a variety of cosmetics, not cosmetics in general as is the case with "a little". Curiously, "only" requires those pronouns to be preceded by "a", which can only be omitted if "only" is ...

Can I have two-word sentences? - English Language Learners Stack Exchange

They're no longer considered unacceptable (when used judiciously) by the vast majority of anglophones, but they're not usually regarded as true sentences. Crotchets, sentence fragments, sentence substitutes.

sick “with” or sick “from” - English Language Learners

Stack ...

I just read "two women in my neighborhood are sick from coronavirus" and I was wondering if that would mean the same as "two women in my neighborhood are sick with coronavirus". Is there any differ...

grammaticality - "to dinner" vs "for dinner" - English Language ...

I am a bit confused about the below sentences: He invited me to dinner at 9 pm. Or He invited me for dinner at 9 pm. Which one is correct?

The difference between "each", "both", and "either"

In summary, your answer claims that (1) a door at either end and (2) a door at both ends each semantically and nonsensically specify a single door shared by the two ends. Not so: observe that a guard on either side means 2 guards and a pat on the back given to both girls means 2 pats on the back.

Is there any difference between "wipe" and "wipe down"?

The object in the question appears to be a blackboard, on which there is writing. This is a particular instance where the two different senses of wipe can be applied to the same thing. It can accept wipe in the sense of removing information. It can also accept wipe down in the sense of cleaning. I am going to wipe the board, so write down what I have written. → I am going to remove (delete ...

word request - sound made while feeling cold - English Language ...

My grandmother makes noise like "sssshhhh" in very cold weather. which word can I describe this activity/sound? Thanks,