How to use a custom draggable / dragging ghost image?

How do I change or use a custom ghost image for the draggable element? I read somewhere during the dragging state, it generates a snapshot image of the dragged element, if so then how can the looks of the element can be changed?

Customize the "ghost" element with VueDraggable - Stack Overflow

Hm, even if I see what you mean it's hard to give an answer straight from this context. Could you please take some time to provide us with a minimal reproducible example? Might make things go quite faster overall. I think that using @mousedown on the moving element and binding the given class to it is the way to go. But there might be a lot of ways of achieving such a result.

installation - installing Ghostscript silently - Stack Overflow

We've been installing Ghostscript by gs10011w64.exe /S for years. For some reason, the new release gs10011w64.exe (10.01.1) will not allow us to silently install with "/S". Has anyone f...

How do I customize the "ghost" element with Vue.Draggable

Some of the draggable elements in the table are quite tall (tbody tags with many rows), so I would like to reduce the height of the so-called "ghost" element while the drag is happening. To clarify, the drag "ghost" element is the copy of the dragging element that changes position in the list in real time.
