Re: Origin of Hartle name/Jess - Genealogy.com

My great grandfather was indeed the Jesse Garfield Hartle that was married to Mamie Evelyn Baker. My grandfather was Jesse Garfield Hartle, Jr. who is buried in Petersburg, Virginia and my father is Jesse Garfield Hartle, III who resides in Colonial Heights, Virginia and I am the IV in Richmond, Virginia. How about that-mystery solved!!

Hartle's of S.E. Missouri - Genealogy.com

Hartle's of S.E. Missouri By genealogy.com user February 20, 1999 at 09:14:44 My great-grandfather was Jesse Hartle born around 1868. He married Marada Seabaugh, who I believe was born in 1872. They were farmers in Millersville, MO. Their children were named Hubert, Beulah, Rufus, Luther, E.W., Dale, Floyd. I would like more information about the parents of Jesse Hartle and Marada Seabaugh. I ...

Re: Peter Hartle- 1750 Holland - Genealogy.com

Peter Hartle who was born 1750 married 2nd in about 1795 to Elizabeth Masters who was born about 1780 and is the daughter of Nicholas Jacob Masters and Elizabeth Clubb. I descend from Elizabeth's sister Sarah Catherine who married Honteel Barks the son of William Barks and Catherine Reinhardt. Getting back to Peter Hartle who was born 1750, he was the son of Simon Hartle who was born about ...

Family of Isaac Sherrill--b. 1 - Genealogy.com

Family of Isaac Sherrill--b. 1768 By Jim Wilson July 20, 2009 at 06:29:53 I enter into this forum with a bit of trepidation, since I am relatively new to the research on the Sherrill family. My g-g-g-grandparents were Josiah Marcum (Markham) (ca. 1798-ca. 3 May 1841) and Anna Sherrill (1802?-1830-1834). They were married 12 Jan 1822 in Wayne County, Kentucky (Ref: Wayne County, Kentucky ...
