John Buscema - Comic Art Community GALLERY OF COMIC ART

Big John started his long career in comics in 1948 and during his 50 years in the industry, John worked on every genre; crime, westerns, Sci-Fi, etc., but his most famous work was produced after his return to Marvel in 1966. Arguably second only to Jack Kirby in importance & page production for Marvel comics, John lent his prodigious ...

John Buscema - Greg Goldstein's Comic Art Gallery

John Buscema was the Avengers artist of the late '60s and early '70s—despite famously claiming he didn't much care for superheroes. Every panel feels like it could've been pulled from a widescreen adventure film, even when the scene is nothing more than a nightmare and a jolting wake-up.
