Lactation and LGBTQ+ Individuals - IABLE

The Academy of Breastfeeding Medicine Clinical Protocol #33 addresses lactation care for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, plus individuals (LGBTQ+). The first section of the protocol reviews the definitions of several terms used in regard to LGBTQ+ health, addressing both sexuality and gender. Assuming people are familiar with most of these terms, 'queer' is a word ...

If two lesbians have a baby, then can both breastfeed?

I don't think they could exclusively breastfeed, but they absolutely can produce breast milk. In fact, so can men, usually when they are on certain medications or have a hormone imbalance/medical issue. Birth mothers who have completely stopped breastfeeding for a long time can also re-lactate, with the aforementioned heavy-duty efforts.

Any lesbian moms who both breastfed? : r/Queerfamilies - Reddit

I've heard that both moms breastfeeding is a thing, but I would love to hear the experiences of people who have actually done it!
