At the River Clarion - Advent Lutheran Church

At the River Clarion By Mary Oliver I don't know who But I'll tell you this. I was sitting in the river named Clarion, on a water splashed stone and all afternoon I listened to the voices of the river talking. Whenever the water struck a stone it had something to say, and the water itself, and even the mosses trailing under the water.

Dayspring United Methodist Church - Together we are making God's world ...

The forty days of Lent now give way to fifty days of Eastertide, a season overflowing with the poetry of resurrection: an empty tomb; a risen, wounded savior; a joyful, astounded community; and a promise of the Spirit to come. The light has lengthened into morning. The new life of spring has arrived.
