Skilled Trades That Don't Require Strong Math Skills (degrees ...

With the economy still weak in many non-urban areas, skilled trades still boast the best entry-level work for people who never went to college or those with "useless" degrees who need to start over. One thing I've noticed in talking with people considering a second career in the skilled trades is that math is often a weak point. So skilled trades people, are there any jobs that don't require ...
