

pappadeaux seafood kitchen nutrition

AI generated article from Bing

Pappadeaux: Marvelous. All-you-can-eat lobster. - LTHForum.com

On Thursdays, Pappadeaux's has all-you-can-eat lobster night. We arrived at about 8:45 p.m. and were told to expect a 20-minute wait (they don't take reservations), but in fact, we barely had time to order martinis in the bar. Very good, very cold Bombay Sapphire martinis, made just as ordered -- 3-to-1 -- and served in chilled stemmed glasses.

LTHForum.com - Pappadeaux's (warmed over)

Pappadeaux's has been promoting gift certificates in today's e-mail despite the fact that they are closing the Arlington Heights store in January. Make sure that you are aware of this before purchasing them.

LTHForum.com - Pappadeaux's (warmed over)

Pappadeaux aims to please the greatest numbers, and it seems unbelievably popular: last night, middle of the week, the cavernous Westmont location was full to overflowing.

LTHForum.com - eating lunch in Oak Brook

I am going to the Oak Brook/Lombard area on Friday to have lunch with friends. Does anyone have any recommendations for a good place that is not part of a chain? Or just even a good place? So far it seems like the typical places like Pappadeaux, Mangiano's, Olive Garden, and mall food offer the only choice.

LTHForum.com - Olympic Peninsula, Washington State

As a person who likes Pappadeaux's, maybe I am not the one to make a recommendation on seafood (g). The seafood place that came highly recommended by all the locals is the Three Crabs in Sequim (Three Crabs Rd (360) 683-6727). Generally, the locals recommend the place for the Dungeness Crab. However, the local specialty is the geoduck (pronounced gooey-duck), a very large oyster harvested from ...

LTHForum.com - Willowbrook rec.? family occasion

Pappadeaux Seafood Kitchen - Cajun themed seafood Maggiano's - Italian Mon Ami Gabi - French bistro fare Carlucci's in Downers Grove - Italian Wildfire - Steakhouse Clubhouse - American Grill I've eaten at all of these places multiple times and can find something I can tolerate on all menus.

Sunday Brunch for 20 in the Buffalo Grove/Lincolnshire Area

Unfortunately, some of our previous places (Pappadeaux in Arlington Heights, Barn of Barrington) have closed and are no longer options; same for Seasons of Long Grove. (Coopers Hawk replaced Pappadeaux and does Sunday brunch but it's from an a la carte menu.)

LTHForum.com - Lobster Ideas?

I was told the all-you-can-eat lobster at Pappadeaux on Thursday night is back. It's not listed on their website, does anyone know if the Arlington Heights location offer this deal?

All you can Eat Lobster! - lthforum.com

The first time I did the AYCE lobster at Pappadeaux on Thursdays it was very good. They were 1lb lobsters that were cooked very well, I was there last month I was pretty disappointed. they were soggy and no taste and the price now is $38.99.

A Swine Time: Cochon de Lait Festival, Mansura, Louisiana

Cochon de Lait, Mansura Louisiana I've made no secret of my love of pork, but there's really more to the story than a simple taste for bacon and cracklins. It's really about pork consumption as a social ritual—the simple act of sharing the experience of preparing, cooking and feasting on this divine animal with friends and family. The heritage sausage-making party, for example. We ...