stonewall jackson and slavery

Stonewall Columbus

Where LGBTQ+ Community Thrives in Central Ohio Building LGBTQ+ community, visibility, and power across Central Ohio. For over 40 years, Stonewall Columbus has been a place of connection, care, and pride.

Stonewall Columbus Honors the Life and Legacy of Rupert "Twink" Starr

Stonewall Columbus serves Central Ohio's LGBTQ+ community by providing a community center and organizing an evolving array of programming, and making connections to services that enhance the well-being and visibility of our diverse community through discovery, affirmation, and celebration.

Stonewall Columbus Receives Ohio Historical Marker Recognition

The marker text celebrates the founding of Stonewall Union, now Stonewall Columbus, in 1981 and its pivotal role in advocating for the LGBTQ+ community through activism, education, and community building.

ABOUT US - Stonewall Columbus

Stonewall Columbus is Central Ohio's LGBTQ+ community organization—founded in 1981 as Stonewall Union. Today, we provide year-round programs, resources, advocacy, and education that strengthen visibility, inclusion, and connection across the region.

Stonewall Columbus Statement on Pride March Participation

Stonewall Columbus welcomes LGBTQ+ affirming organizations and individuals to march with us—because your support, your presence, and your voice matter. Together, we show the world that our community is united in power, purpose, and pride.

Call for Increased Public Safety & Solidarity for Pride 2025

Follow Stonewall Columbus for real-time local event updates and resources. Remember that your presence is powerful—showing up is a form of resistance, and safety is a shared practice.

Programs - Stonewall Columbus

"Tiny Table Talks" is an intimate, in-person, conversation series presented by Stonewall Columbus, designed to explore and celebrate the depth and diversity of the LGBTQ+/queer experience.

Advocacy - Stonewall Columbus

At Stonewall Columbus, we stand firmly in defense of equality, justice, and the fundamental right to love and marry freely. Today's decision by the United States Supreme Court to reject […]

Stonewall Columbus History

Stonewall Columbus (formerly known as Stonewall Union) was incorporated by local Columbus, Ohio gay activists in 1981, in response to Jerry Falwell's attempt to establish a Columbus-based Moral Majority headquarters.

Read Out (List) - Stonewall Columbus

The Read Out (List) is more than a collection of books—it's an annual curated guide to queer literature designed to inspire, educate, and celebrate. Each year, we invite readers to explore stories that reflect the intersectional experiences of LGBTQ+ individuals, offering a window into the diversity and depth of our…