Where to buy a self-addressed envelope with "4.05 Euros" stamp to ...

My Embassy has asked me to send them "a self-addressed envelope with 4.05 Euro stamp" so that they can send me my new passport. I went to a DHL PaketShop and they said they don't know about any 4.05 stamp.

My first test was on my glass desk, and you could see many defects - then I added few layers of paper below, the impression of the ink was much better (you can press on the stamp to have a better ink transfer)!!!

The decline in stamp values since 1983 : r/philately - Reddit

They're all cool to me.

Singapore passport stamp : r/PassportPorn - Reddit

Also, they do stamp if you get issued a new pass or extend your pass in-country at immigration headquarters (as pictured in this post). PTL stamps are from my understanding, generally only issued to permanent residents and citizens.
