God rewards evil people and punishes good ones. He always has ...

I think you're wrong. Lamentations clearly addresses this: Lamentations 3:37 "Who is there who speaks and it happens, unless the Lord has ordained it?" The evil you see happening among powerful men in this country is happening because God allows it and approves it. As the verse says, He ordains it. He will it to happen. So all this evil is the direct result of his will to make it happen. You ...

Responding To God - Blog - City-Data Forum

Going to church, reading the bible, listening to Christian music will not advance your spiritual life. These activities may give you more understanding but until you are ready to lay down your life and take up your cross this leads nowhere. What I am talking about is the sacrifice of self to advance the cause of Jesus Christ in the world. There is a destiny that God had for each of us that ...
