

the groden network

AI generated article from Bing

Groden Network | Your Autism Experts

Groden Network supports individuals of all ages with autism, behavioral challenges and other developmental disabilities to lead productive, dignified and satisfying lives.

The Groden Center

At the Groden Network, we believe that education is vital to building confidence, independence, and self-esteem. The Groden Day School, located on the East Side of Providence, offers a broad range of individualized services in a traditional, unrestrictive setting to empower young learners.

Our Programs - Groden Network

The Groden Network was founded by Doctors June and Gerry Groden in 1976 to fill what they saw as a void in maximally effective treatment of services for children with autism.

Programs for Children - Groden Network

The Groden Network is recognized nationally and internationally as a leader in autism services.

About | Groden Network

The mission of The Groden Network is to provide a continuum of the highest quality supports to individuals with autism, other neuro-developmental disorders, and associated behavioral challenges across the lifespan.

Our History - Groden Network

Dr. Groden received his BA and MA from the University of Vermont, and his Ph.D. from Purdue University in Clinical Child Psychology. He taught psychology, human development, and related courses at the University of Rhode Island, Brown University, Rhode Island College, and Indiana University.

Community & Home Therapeutic Services - Groden Network

The Groden Network is recognized nationally and internationally as a leader in autism services.

Outpatient Services - Groden Network

At the Groden Network, we're committed to delivering compassionate, accurate treatment to help children, youth, and adults live happy independent lives. Outpatient services provides critical care for individuals and the support that family members need.

Programs for Adults - Groden Network

The Groden Network is recognized nationally and internationally as a leader in autism services.

Who Should I Speak With? - Groden Network

The Groden Network is recognized nationally and internationally as a leader in autism services.